Your Heart Knows the Way Home
by Te Martin @te.martin

Your heart knows the way home,
Your heart knows the way home

Listen, the river is singing, singing. It's freedom

The water, will speak, to you, in the silence

The Water Remembers

The water remembers, the water recalls,
The water connects us one and all,
Guiding us back home

Rushing Rivers

Rushing rivers flowing going to the sea endlessly

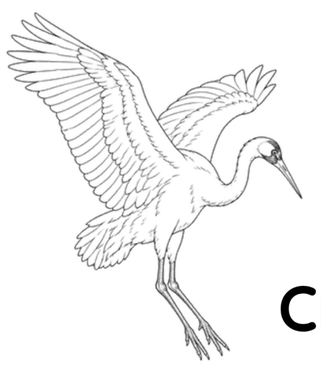

Over the Plains

Over the plains, clouds are gathering rain.
From the mountain crown, all the water flows down

Up Swim the Sturgeon

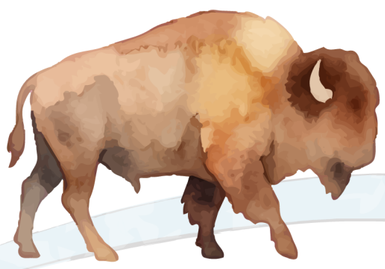

Up swim the sturgeon
To lay their eggs in the river bed cobble
Boom, boom, boom-chauck

Cranes Leap

Cranes leap and cranes bow deep,
Sing down the sun - singing, singing the sunset (x2)

Cranes leap and cranes bow deep,
Sing up the sun - singing, singing the sunrise. (x2)

Hoofbeats of Bison

Hoof beats of bison go!
[Stomp stomp stomp stomp stomp]

Hoof beats of bison go!
[Stomp stomp stomp stomp stomp]
